Mr. Alex. Murphy brought to town a lamb last Monday for exhibition, which he claims is a half breed being a mixture of deer and sheep. Its horns together with its color shows that it is mixed with deer.—Burkesville Herald.

Mary's little lamb will hereafter occupy a remote seat as this last chievement in the lamb's business discounts Mollie's little muttonhead for doe-silly-ty.

Last Monday, Mr. Craig, the Main Cross St. butcher, sent Frank Pudoff to kill a beef for him. Frank went to the pasture where several cows were grazing and picked out the one he thought would make the best beef and killed and dressed her. Late that evening when Robert Carlisle went to milk he could not find his cow. Investigation proved that Frank had killed Robert's $60 Jersey and left a $14 steer as Boh's dependence for milk and hutter. Pendleton

If Mr. Craig is going to furnish his customers with beeves at $60 apiece and the community mean while have to depend on $14 steers of me. Truth for milk and butter, it is safe to say that butter and beef-steak will soon attain sky high prices.
